

Small Group Discussion From The Epic Journey

January 10, 2010 “Go Fish” (Mark 1)

1. Describe a relationship in your life, where you feel a conversation about God could happen, but has not as of yet. Why is this?
2. Read Mark 1:15-20
 - a. What is the difference between a forced conversation about God, and being a “Fisher of Men?”
 - b. Notice how Jesus phrases his call to Simon and Andrew (V.17). Jesus says “Come follow me and I will make you....” Discuss this call as a group. What does it mean for us as Christ-followers today? Do we take this seriously in our lives?
3. Read Acts 4:18-21.
 - (a) Reflect on your own experiences with God, what is it that you have “seen” and “heard” that you can share with others?
4. Read Acts 4:13.
 - a. So often we feel inadequate in sharing our faith because of a perceived “lack of knowledge.” What is it about Peter and John that astonished the people?
 - b. What then is the most important for us today, as we seek to be Fishers of Men?
