Am I A Good Neighbour?

Read Proverbs 3:27-30; 11:10-12

1. Who do you consider to be your neighbour?
2. (Prov 11:11) In what ways can you bless your city?
3. (Prov 3:27) What kind of “power” do you have? How can you use it?
4. (Prov 11:12) How do you react when others hold different views (ideological, political, religious, etc) than you? In what ways can you improve your response?

Read Luke 10:30-37

1. What stands out to you about this parable?
2. What does Jesus want us to understand through this parable?
3. Division in society is nothing new. It was there in Jesus’ day and it is also in ours. In what ways are you contributing to these divisions? In what ways are you working toward unity?
4. How do you approach conversations where you strongly differ in view with the person you’re talking with? In what way does your approach need to change?
